Ryan Fraser, CFP® CIM RIS MFA-P™ is a nationally known Financial Planning & Philanthropy expert, with an extensive background as a leader, volunteer and founder of many charitable organizations. His firm, Quiet Legacy Planning Group Ltd., specializes in working with individuals who wish to incorporate their personal value system into their financial planning experience.

He is past president of the Estate Planner Council of London, and a past chair of the Canadian Association of Gift Planners (CAGP) London Roundtable.

He is also a faculty member for the MFA-P™ program offered through Knowledge Bureau, as well as CAGP's Gift Planning Fundamentals course. Most recently, he chaired the CAGP working group on Life Insurance Donations, which has developed a ground-breaking set of best-practice guidelines for donations of Life Insurance across Canada.

Ryan specializes in working with chronic savers who have a strong interest in philanthropy and community volunteering. His clients often prefer to remain "under the radar" in their giving, and may have a strong preference for Socially Responsible Investing. Ryan works with clients in the London, Kitchener-Waterloo, Toronto and Ottawa areas.
